About Agent Name

I have been a licensed Realtor in the state of Arizona for over 6 years now. On top of that I have lived here my whole life and know the in's and out's of most communities. After graduating from college I gained valuable real estate knowledge as a lender before finding my true calling as a Realtor. Whether you are looking to buy and home or explore the possibility of selling your current home I would love to help in any way that I can or connect you with the right people.

I came across my agent online and was really impressed by her marketing abilities and she turned out to be extremely helpful!

BELLA TRAUSE | BOUGHT A HOME

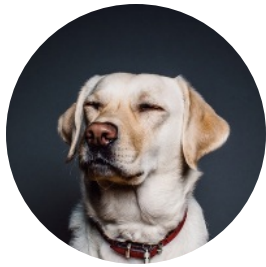

My agent was incredible, they found all the best homes for me and made the process as streamlined as possible!

MICHAEL CARDEL | BOUGHT A HOME

My Realtor made all the difference, I was considering selling it myself but I am so glad I didn't. They helped me get top dollar and were gr

About Lender Name

I have been a loan officer for 15 years now, with experience in Tucson and Phoenix. My goal is to help people make their dreams a reality. The home buying process can be stressful but I work hard to always keep you informed and make sure you are well aware of your options and the different possibilities. Please let me know if you would ever like to be pre-qualified or would even be interested in sitting down for a cup of coffee to have some of your questions answered.

My lender secured my loan in less than 2 weeks, it was the part of the home buying process that I was most nervous about and it ended up bei
